

A meeting by Archivists for Archivists

Join us in Louisville for ACWR's 9th triennial conference, featuring inspiring speakers, hands-on workshops, useful presentations, and great conversations with like-minded archivists. Whether you are at the top of your career or just beginning your work in archives of women religious, you will find presentations to challenge and inspire you.

Conference fee includes:

- Access to all sessions and speakers
- Opening reception, lunches, Friday dinner and Saturday banquet

New in 2018:

- "Ask an Archivist" – Have a burning question or niggling problem? Schedule your one-on-one time with an expert.
- "Custodia" – Considering a merger? Placing your archives with another institution? Facing closure? Schedule a one-on-one appointment with a Custodia expert to discuss concerns and options. Get the opportunity to speak with other archivists facing similar challenges as well as with those who have survived such moves. Advisors will be available daily throughout the conference!
